Summary

I am a first-year B.Tech student in Computer Science & Artificial Intelligence at Newton School of Technology. I am currently building my foundation in programming and technology. I have learned Python along with Data Structures & Algorithms, and I am also exploring web development using HTML, CSS, JavaScript and React. Apart from coding, I enjoy experimenting with prompt writing and UI design using Figma. I am particularly interested in software development, artificial intelligence, and machine learning, and I am continuously working to improve my technical skills by learning and building projects. I am always open to learning, collaboration, and connecting with people in the tech community.
